The following letter-form was brought about as a means of teaching my children the Word of God through the mail. And of course, quite naturally so, that's the reason I begin these letters with "Dear Children" and end them with "Love Dad". So for the rest of you who participate in these weekly messages, please keep their original intended purpose in mind.

1 June, 2014

Dear Children,

It was somewhere around the time of Jack Chick's 90th birthday (13 April) that I received the official announcement for his latest tract – "Just One More". And likewise, it's because of that same tract that the Lord's having me to write this sermonet of today: "Jack T. Chick – Founder Of Chick Publications – Is In Critical Condition!" And the reason that we're saying Jack Chick is in "critical condition" is because of what's been written on page 21 of that same tract (http://www.chick.com/reading/tracts/1094/1094_01.asp):

So, there you have both the cover page and the 21st page of Jack Chick's latest tract. And with that in mind, the following excerpt from "www.chickcomics.com" will give us a brief summary of what Jack Chick and his gospel tracts are really all about:

"Whether you love him or hate him, you gotta respect Chick for sticking to his guns. Since 1961 (half a century!), he's cranked out tract after tract to help sinners "see the light." He's written over 225 different tracts, with more than 800,000,000 distributed worldwide (in over 100 different languages)! His influence is so feared that entire nations have passed special laws banning his comics. Even as Political Correctness reigns supreme, Chick seems unafraid to take on the sacred cows. He steadfastly exposes The Conspiracy of Catholics, Masons, Mormons, Jehovah's Witnesses, New Agers, Rock & Rollers, and any other group the devil might use to damn your soul. Chick also offends Jews and Muslims with previews of their fiery futures in hell (but only because he wants to save them). The more taboo a topic, the more likely you'll see it covered in a Chick tract!"

Jack Chick has faithfully incorporated God's uncompromising Truth in his tracts for many years. But now that he's reached his 90th birthday, we must sincerely ask the following questions: "Has there been a change? Has Jack Chick sold out? Is he now compromising the gospel of Jesus Christ in his tracts?"

Well, as we are about to see, Jack Chick's most recent tract – "Just One More" – speaks "Satan's lie" as though it were "God's Truth"! And with "Satan's lie" in mind, let us now expose it in the Light of God's Word for the whole wide world to see:

What do we have to do to be saved so we can go to heaven?

That is the question "Ruth" asked "Detective Parsons" on page 21 of the "Just One More" tract. Notice that the question "Ruth" asked is concerning the "salvation" needed for a person to gain entrance into "Heaven" when they die. And the following is "Detective Parsons" reply:

It's so simple. Just Believe Jesus died for your sins, and that He rose from the dead, and receive Him as your personal Saviour.* (*See Romans 10:9-10)

Now in the most simplified sort of way, the answer "Detective Parsons" gave "Ruth" concerning what it takes to be "saved" and go to "Heaven" is without a doubt "God's Truth". However, it's the following narrator's account of what takes place next in the life of "Ruth and her son" that's undeniably, unmistakably, and unequivocally "Satan's lie":

That afternoon both Ruth and her son gave their hearts to the Lord Jesus Christ. Their future's now secure. Jesus will never leave them, nor forsake them.* He's preparing a mansion in heaven for them. (*Hebrews 13:5) What about you?

You see it was after "Ruth and her son" heard the gospel message of "salvation", and followed through by giving their lives to Jesus in anticipation of that glorious day when they will be with Him in "Heaven", that the narrator made comment concerning their “future” now being “secure” in Christ. In other words, it’s a done deal! “Jesus will never leave them or forsake them”, and their “mansion in Heaven” will be ready for their “future” arrival just in time. And it’s that same “Eternal Security” or “Once Saved Always Saved” belief system that’s already sent millions (if not billions) of so-called “Christians” into the everlasting fires that are never quenched!

So that’s the “lie of Satan”, sent straight from the pit of Hell, that was presented as the “Truth of God” in Jack Chick’s most recent “Just One More” tract. But now let me show you the truth of this matter from God’s Word. I mean, after all, “Once Saved NOT Always Saved!” And starting with the “Hebrews 13:5” quoted Scripture from page 21 of the tract, we find the following:

“Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee. So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.” (Hebrews 13:5-6 KJV)

“To Christian contentment, Heb 13:5, Heb 13:6. Here observe, 1. The sin that is contrary to this grace and duty - covetousness, an over eager desire of the wealth of this world, envying those who have more than we. This sin we must allow no place in our conversation; for, though it be a secret lust lurking in the heart, if it be not subdued it will enter into our conversation, and discover itself in our manner of speaking and acting. We must take care not only to keep this sin down, but to root it out of our souls. 2. The duty and grace that is contrary to covetousness - being satisfied and pleased with such things as we have; present things, for past things cannot be recalled, and future things are only in the hand of God. What God gives us from day to day we must be content with, though it fall short of what we have enjoyed heretofore, and though it do not come up to our expectations for the future. We must be content with our present lot.” (Matthew Henry’s Commentary On The Whole Bible)

Now isn’t that interesting? When you go back to the Scripture from which the quote was taken – “I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee” – you’ll find that Jesus was not promising “security” in a “salvation” that cannot be lost anywhere along the way on life’s journey, but instead Jesus was promising to provide whatever is needed to sustain the life of the “saved” individual as they “deny” themselves many of the fleshly pleasures of life in order to take up their cross and follow Him:

“Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it.” (Matthew 16:24-25 KJV)

You see the “death” of “self” is what the “cross” is designed to do... and it’s by no means an easy thing for the “saved” individual to accomplish during their lifetime. In fact it’s the sin of “covetousness”, as pointed out in Hebrews 13:5-6, that keeps most “saved” individuals from continuing in their “salvation” walk of “crucifixion”... and therefore the reason Brother Paul encourages those same “saved” individuals to “continue suffering” and “forsake it all” for “Christ’s glory”:

“But godliness with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. And having food and raiment let us be therewith content. But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.” (1 Timothy 6:6-9 KJV)

“Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content. I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need. I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.” (Philippians 4:11-13 KJV)

The sin of “covetousness”, as pointed out in Hebrews 13:5-6, is what keeps most “saved” individuals from continuing in their “salvation” that demands the “loss of life” as they take up their cross and follow Jesus. And it’s because of that one simple fact that Brother Paul issues the following “frightening” warning to those individuals that are “saved”:

“Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.” (Philippians 2:12-13 KJV)

“Once Saved NOT Always Saved!” That’s exactly what Brother Paul’s “frightening” warning is all about... and it flies in the face of the promise given in Jack Chick’s tract to “Ruth and her son” concerning their “future” being “secure” in Christ.

In fact, by going back to the book of Hebrews from which Jack Chick’s “secure future” quote was taken – “I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee” – we can discover the Truth from God’s Word concerning the “ongoing standard” that must be met in order for the “saved” individual’s “future” to actually be “secure”:

“Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered; And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey (G5219) him; Called of God an high priest after the order of Melchisedec.” (Hebrews 5:8-10 KJV)

Obey (G5219) [hoop-ak-oo'-o] - From G5259 and G191; to hear under (as a subordinate), that is, to listen attentively; by implication to heed or conform to a command or authority: - hearken, be obedient to, obey. (Strong’s Hebrew And Greek Dictionary)

“Obedience” is the key to “eternal salvation”. In other words the “future” is “secure” for the “saved” individual as long as they “obey” the Son (Jesus) as He leads the way to the cross that will crucify their flesh:

“Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it.” (Matthew 16:24-25 KJV)

“Obedience” to each and every command of Jesus is the key to “eternal salvation”. And, of course, that’s the reason it’s so very critical that the “saved” individual utterly and completely give up on what they want in their life (“deny” self) in order to not “deny” Jesus what He desires of their life. Because if the “saved” individual “denies” Jesus the right to be in total control of their life, He will also “deny” them “eternal salvation” in Heaven:

“It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him: If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us: If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself.” (2 Timothy 2:11-13 KJV)

And, of course, this is where the encouraging words of “Hebrews 13:5-6” – “I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee” – come into play by encouraging the “saved” individual to remain faithful in their “obedient” suffering for Jesus and not “deny” Him through any “covetousness sin”. Because the Scriptures are very clear that many of the “once saved” will not be “always saved” because of “disobedience” to the Will of the Father through the Son:

“Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.” (Matthew 7:21-23 KJV)

Now, without a doubt, those are Words that no “saved” individual would ever expect to hear on Judgment Day: “I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.” And the reason that Jesus will say that He “never knew” this “once saved” individual is found in the following Scripture from the book of Ezekiel:

“Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me... Again, When a righteous man doth turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumblingblock before him, he shall die: because thou hast not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he hath done shall not be remembered; but his blood will I require at thine hand. Nevertheless if thou warn the righteous man, that the righteous sin not, and he doth not sin, he shall surely live, because he is warned; also thou hast delivered thy soul.” (Ezekiel 3:17, 20-21 KJV)

The Word of God emphatically declares that whenever a “saved” individual (“righteous man”) “sins” against God (“commits iniquity”), and does not repent of that sin, all their previous “works of obedience” (“righteousness which he hath done”) will no longer be remembered. And therefore the Words of Jesus on Judgment Day – “I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity” – will likewise apply.

Another example of this “Once Saved NOT Always Saved” can be found in the book of James:

“Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him. Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man: But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed. Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death. Do not err, my beloved brethren.” (James 1:12-16 KJV)

Now notice that Brother James is dealing with the same “sin of covetousness” that’s dealt with in “Hebrews 13:5-6”. Because, you see, it’s the “lust” for things that Jesus has commanded the “saved” individual to forsake that will eventually turn into the “sin of covetousness” when the “forbidden thing” is not forsaken. And once that “sin of covetousness” has been conceived, the “Once Saved NOT Always Saved” principal becomes reality as the “saved” individual becomes “no longer saved”.

However, as Brother James goes on to point out, there may still be hope for the “saved” individual that is “no longer saved” if they will only receive correction and turn from their wicked ways by forsaking the thing that they were so unwilling to forsake for Jesus in the first place:

“Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him; Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins.” (James 5:19-20 KJV)

So, “Once Saved NOT Always Saved”! And as should be apparently obvious by now, the thing that causes the “saved” individuals to become “no longer saved” is nothing less than “lust” for the things that Jesus wants them to forsake. And the following single verse of Scripture gives the details on how to keep from “lusting” unto sin and death:

“This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.” (Galatians 5:16 KJV)

Now that seems simple enough, right? Just “walk in the Spirit” and the “lust” won’t have dominion (control)! But, of course, in order for the “saved” individual to “walk in the Spirit” they must first be “led by the Spirit”:

“For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.” (Romans 8:14 KJV)

And taking that one step further, in order for the “saved” individual to be “led by the Spirit” they must first be able to hear the “Voice of God” as pointed out in the following quote from A.W. Tozer:

“The Voice of God is the most powerful force in nature, indeed the only force in nature, for all energy is here only because the power-filled Word is being spoken. The Bible is the written word of God, and because it is written it is confined and limited by the necessities of ink and paper and leather. The Voice of God, however, is alive and free as the sovereign God is free. 'The words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.' The life is in the speaking words. God's word in the Bible can have power only because it corresponds to God's word in the universe. It is the present Voice which makes the written Word all-powerful. Otherwise it would lie locked in slumber within the covers of a book... This universal Voice of God was by the ancient Hebrews often called Wisdom, and was said to be everywhere sounding and searching throughout the earth, seeking some response from the sons of men.” (A.W. Tozer – “The Pursuit of God”)

God still speaks! And it's through this method of communication that the “saved” individual is able to continually overcome the “lust of the flesh” by continually “walking in the Spirit” as they are continually “led by the Spirit” through the spoken “rhema” (G4487) instructions/commands from God:

"It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words (G4487) that I [Jesus] speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life." (John 6:63 KJV)

Word (G4487) [rhema] – from reo, to speak. A word spoken or uttered; a speech or sentence consisting of several words; a word, command; denoting the operative or all powerful word or command of God; a report, account. Rhema stands for the subject matter of the word, the thing which is spoken about. (The Complete Word Study New Testament With Greek Parallel)

So having said all that, we can now go back to the book of Hebrews from which Jack Chick's “secure future” quote was taken – “I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee” – and better understand the “ongoing standard” that must be met in order for a “saved” individual's “future” to actually be “secure” in Christ:

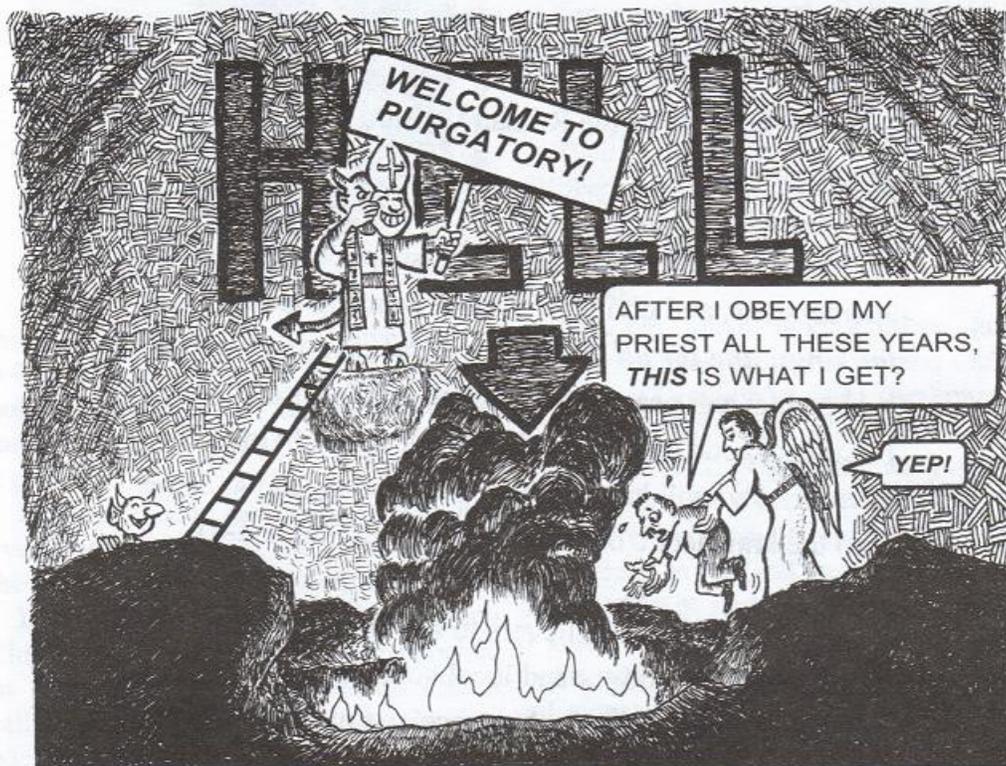

“Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered; And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him; Called of God an high priest after the order of Melchisedec.” (Hebrews 5:8-10 KJV)

The “eternal security” of “eternal salvation” can only come about as the “saved” individual continually seeks to “hear” the Voice of the Son (Jesus) and likewise “obey” His each and every “rhema” (G4487) instruction/command for their life. I mean, after all, the Scriptures are abundantly clear in pointing out that whenever a “saved” individual chooses to deny Christ by disobeying any of His “rhema” (G4487) instructions/commands for their life, then those same rejected “rhema” (G4487) instructions/commands will cause Christ to deny them in the end:

“Jesus cried and said, He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me. And he that seeth me seeth him that sent me. I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness. And if any man hear my words (G4487), and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words (G4487), hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day. For I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak. And I know that his commandment is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.” (John 12:44-50 KJV)

No “Christian” in their right mind would want to hear Jesus speak the following Words to them on Judgment Day: “I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity”! But yet that is exactly what will happen to the untold millions that have chosen to believe the “Once Saved Always Saved”/”Eternal Security” lie from Satan and then use it in their defense to sin against God.

And just to show you the undeniable “power” this “damnable doctrine” has over the Baptist Church denomination, there is at least one Baptist pastor that has borrowed from the Catholic Church by creating/inventing a “Baptist Purgatory” in order to explain away the inconsistencies between the “OSAS”/”ES” teachings and the Scriptures found in God’s Holy Bible (KJV). In fact he teaches that all the Baptist “Brethren” that die in sin will have to suffer in Hell until Jesus pardons them after His “Millennium Reign” on earth has ended (http://webmail.fmh-child.org/audio/Baptist_Purgatory.mp3).

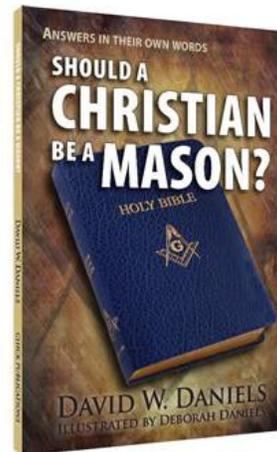

Now even though one thousand years (1,000) is a long time for the Baptist (and Catholics too for that matter) to have to suffer in “Purgatory”, the fact remains that it’s all a lie from Satan. Their so-called “Purgatory” is actually “Hell”... and Hell has no exits! I mean once you’re in Hell you’re in there for all eternity! In other words, your “damnation” will be “eternally secure” in Hell “forever”:

“And they shall go forth, and look upon the carcasses of the men that have transgressed against me: for their worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched; and they shall be an abhorring unto all flesh.” (Isaiah 66:24 KJV)

“Once Saved NOT Always Saved”!!! So why is Jack Chick teaching/preaching the damnable “OSAS”/”ES” doctrine in his “Just One More” tract??? I mean why in the round world is Jack Chick now incorporating “Satan’s lie” in his tracts after having been so faithful, for so many years, to only present “God’s Truth”???

Well, even though this seems to be the first time that the heretical “OSAS”/”ES” doctrine has been presented as “God’s Truth” in a Chick tract, it’s certainly not the first time it’s been presented in a Chick publication. In fact it was back in 2011 that the Lord showed me this same “OSAS”/”ES” compromising spirit in “David W. Daniels” who is an integral part of Chick Publications. And it was through the leading of the Holy Spirit that we produced a sermonet – “Chick Tracts And David W. Daniels: Unequally Yoked!” – that exposed this evil for the whole wide world to see... with the following being an excerpt thereof (<http://www.fmh-child.org/S7.24.11.html>):

Now it was only a few weeks ago that I received a Chick Publications newsletter promoting David W. Daniels’ newest book “Should A Christian Be A Mason?” And as the newsletter went on to say, the specific purpose of the book is to help the reader find out what Masonry actually believes in (what is taught to its leaders and higher-degree Masons), and what the Holy Bible has to say about those same beliefs.

Well, the book sounded pretty good to me! In fact the newsletter even included a link to an earlier interview David W. Daniels did on “The Living Word Radio” (WBLW 88.1 FM) that took place on “The Rise And Shine Time” (7:00-9:00 AM show) hosted by Dominic Garrisi and Dustin Dilworth. And as the Good Lord would have it, I turned on and tuned in to what had been said... and this is how the interview started (<http://www.wblwradio.com/index.php?page=audio&file=DWDanielso61411>):

“We have a very special guest on the radio with us today. He’s not a complete stranger to WBLW and The Living Word FM. Ah, David W. Daniels from Chick Publications. He’s the author of several books on the King James Bible and other topics as well. And, ah, he’s also a research consultant with Chick Publications too. Exactly. And he just wrote, he recently wrote a new book called ‘Should A Christian Be A Mason?’”

Now, with that introduction in mind, it shouldn't be too hard to see David W. Daniels as a true representative (an ambassador) for Chick Publications. Not only does Chick publish his books, but Chick also employs him as research consultant. David W. Daniels is very notable and visible part of Chick Publications. And that's why the title of today's message is "Chick Tracts And David W. Daniels: Unequally Yoked!"

But moving right along, it was shortly after the radio hosts' introduction that David W. Daniels had the following to say about "Christian" Masons:

"According to figures about a decade old, around 1.2 million or so Southern Baptist are or were Free Masons. That's not even counting the leadership, because they said they wouldn't count the leadership. That's a lot of people claiming to be Christians who also claim an open fellowship in Masonic Lodges. So we need to know for sure: is this a help or is this a hindrance to my Christian life? Will this help me or hinder me in my Christian walk? Is this a good use of my time as a Christian? We all have this same 168 hours of the week. How we use that time determines our rewards in Heaven. So I think it's vital to answer that question. It's something that can use up a great deal of a Christian's time, energy, memorizing skills and resources. Should a Christian be a Mason?"

So, what did you think about that? Well, I don't know about you but I got just a little confused as to exactly where David W. Daniels was headed when he talked about those "Masons who claimed to be Christians". I mean it sound like he was going to focus in on a group of people – "Masons" – who claimed to be something – "Christian" – that they never really were. But then he bore down on his belief that "Christian" Masons would only lose some of their rewards in Heaven... and not their everlasting souls in the burning flames of Hell.

Well, that was the introduction to our sermonet in which we put the bust on David W. Daniels for promoting his damnable "OSAS"/"ES" doctrine by teaching that a "real Christian" can also be a "real Mason". And after having thoroughly exposed the Truth of his lie, we went on to show that Jack Chick is diametrically opposed to what David W, Daniels teaches on this subject of "Christian" Masons through the following excerpt from the Chick Publications' March/April 2003 "Battle Cry" (<http://www.chick.com/bc/2003/whatif.asp>):

"Chick Publications also offers several paperback books on the satanic nature of Masonry... These books contain hundreds of pages of documentation proving that no Bible believer can serve a "Worshipful Master" in a Masonry lodge and obey Jesus Christ as Lord of his life."

So, without a doubt, Jack Chick does not believe that "a Mason can be Christian"... nor does he believe that "a Christian can be a Mason"! But just in case there was any doubt in this matter, we went on to share a few frames from four (4) of his tracts that deal with the satanic nature of Masonry and the Biblical Truth that "Once Saved NOT Always Saved" when it comes to a "Christian Mason". And with all the evidence having been presented, the following is how we closed that sermonet:

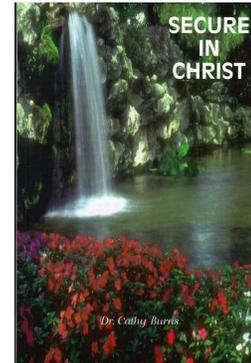

Now with all of that in mind, let's get back to the title of this message for today: "Chick Tracts And David W. Daniels: Unequally Yoked!" I mean, with all the proof that's been set before you, do you really think it's a good thing for David W. Daniels to be an ambassador and research specialist for Chick Publications? After all, this is what God's Word has to say about it:

"Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?" (2 Corinthians 6:14-15 KJV)

Turn from your wicked ways, David W. Daniels... and "keep on keeping the faith in Jesus!!!"

So, without a doubt, there's a snake in the woodpile at Chick Publications promoting the damnable "OSAS"/"ES" doctrine. And it appears that this "deadly snake" has either bitten Jack Chick or taken control of Chick Publications. It could even be both! But there's one thing for sure, something "dark and sinister" is going down at Chick Publications... and that's a fact!

In closing, you might want to check out Dr. Cathy Burns' book "Secure In Christ" in which she not only list the Scriptures used by the "Eternal Security" advocates to substantiate their damnable "OSAS" doctrine (such as Hebrews 13:5), but she also goes on to explain how they've taken the "Truth" of God's Scriptures and turned it into "Satan's lie" (http://www.fmh-child.org/Secure_In_Christ.pdf).

And with all that in mind, let's finalize this message with one of the favorite Scriptures "they" use to substantiate their "OSAS"/"ES" lie:

"My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand." (John 10:27-28 KJV)

Now this one is like a "no brainer" when trying to use it to substantiate the "OSAS"/"ES" lie. I mean Jesus is the Shepherd who demands total "obedience" from the "saved individual" (the sheep) seeking "eternal salvation" (eternal life/eternal security)... and "disobedience" (sin/iniquity/unrighteousness) has no part in this "eternal salvation" plan. I mean, after all, the "OSAS"/"ES" advocates claim that the "saved" individual can have their "sin" and "salvation" too. But God says it just ain't so!

And then there's this promise that the "OSAS"/"ES" advocates hang their hat on in justifying their "sin" and "salvation" too: "they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand". However, the reality of being "plucked" is to be "taken against one's will – to be forced". And as we have already seen through the Scriptures, the "sin" of "covetousness" is alluring but not forceful. It entices the "saved" individual to willingly relinquish their “eternal salvation” in exchange for “everlasting destruction”:

“But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.” (1 Timothy 6:9 KJV)

“Once Saved NOT Always Saved”! And that just about wraps this one up: “Jack T. Chick – Founder Of Chick Publications – Is In Critical Condition!”

So do you love Jack Chick enough to tell him the Truth? Bombard him with your letters, e-mails, phone calls, or faxes. Better yet, just show up in person. But whatever you do, just make sure you let him know that his latest tract – “Just One More” – is an abomination in the Eyes of God, and He is not at all pleased with it. In fact God Almighty is “wroth” concerning this “lie of Satan” that’s crept into Chick Publications. And here are the ways you can send Jack Chick the message:

Without a doubt, we are in the end of times. Jesus is coming back soon to Rapture His Church, and this most recent turn of events with Chick Publications proves it:

“And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold. But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.”
(Matthew 24:12-13 KJV)

“Once Saved NOT Always Saved”! Don’t get left behind! “Hear God” and “obey God” and “keep on keeping the faith in Jesus!!!”

Update (8/22/14):

The following acquaintances of Jack T. Chick were contacted concerning the urgent message found in this sermonet. If anybody could get through to Jack T. Chick these people could. However, none of them responded to my request for help. How very sad!
