

Yahweh -- Three In One

יהוה

The Divine Attributes of God are graphically illustrated in His Name – “Yahweh (Yahveh)”. That’s the way we spell “God’s Name” in English (transliterated), but the true “Picture of God” can only be seen by going back to it’s original Hebrew spelling (יהוה). Because you see it’s only through a close inspection of those four (4) Hebrew letters, and their position, that we can see “Yahweh” as God intended – “The Three” in “The One”. However, seeing how Hebrew reads from right to left, but English reads from left to right, from here on out we’re going to reverse the four Hebrew letters in God’s Name for the sake of clarity and ease of comparison:

י - ה - ו - ה

Yod - Hey - Waw - Hey

Yahweh

#1) The first letter, which is pronounced “Yod”, is the 10th letter of the Hebrew alphabet and has the numeric value of ten. It is symbolic of the First Person of the Godhead – the “Father”.

The Mystery of Yod - (<http://www.hebrew4christians.com>):

Suspended in mid-air, Yod is the smallest of the Hebrew letters, the “atom” of the consonants, and the form from which all other letters begin and end. [The first dot with which the Scribes first start writing a letter, or the last dot that gives a letter its final form – is a yod. (Likutei Maharar).] In the Jewish mystical tradition Yod represents a mere dot, a divine point of energy. Since Yod is used to form all the other letters, and since God uses the letters as the building blocks of creation, Yod indicates God’s omnipresence... Since Jesus upholds the world by the Word of His power (Hebrews 1:3), and Yod is part of every Hebrew letter (and therefore every word), Yod is considered the starting point of the presence of God in all things – the “spark” of the Spirit in everything.

#2) The second letter, which is pronounced “Hey”, is the 5th letter of the Hebrew alphabet and has the numeric value of five. It is symbolic of the Third Person of the Godhead – the “Holy Spirit”.

The Mystery of Hey - (<http://www.hebrew4christians.com>):

According to the Jewish mystics, Hey represents the divine breath, revelation, and light (the word “light” is mentioned five times on the first day of creation (Gen. 1:3-4), which is said to correspond to the letter Hey). Since the numerical value of Hey is five, this corresponds on a physical level to the five fingers, the five senses, and the five dimensions. On the spiritual level it corresponds to the five levels of the soul (instincts, emotions, mind, bridge to transcendence, and oneness).

#3) The third letter, which is pronounced “Waw” or “Vav”, is the 6th letter of the Hebrew alphabet and has the numeric value of six. It is symbolic of the Second Person of the Godhead – the “Word/Son”.

The Mystery of Vav - (<http://www.hebrew4christians.com>):

The first Vav in the Torah occurs in Gen. 1:1 – בראשית ברא אלהים את השמים ואת הארץ – (In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth). The placement of the Vav suggest two of it’s connective powers:

- By joining heaven and earth (השמים ואת הארץ) it implies the connection between spiritual and earthly matters.
- Since it occurs as the 22nd letter in the Torah attached to the sixth word, את (et), it alludes to the creative connection between all the letters. Vav is therefore the connection force of the God, the divine “hook” that binds together heaven and earth.

#4) The fourth letter, which is pronounced “Hey”, is once again the 5th letter of the Hebrew alphabet, and has the numeric value of five. It is symbolic of the Third Person of the Godhead – the “Holy Spirit”. (See “The Mystery of Hey” in #2.)

So there you have it! God’s Name (The Name of God) spelled out in four Hebrew letters, with each being representative of a Member of the “Triune Godhead”. However, seeing how “tri” means “three”, why do you suppose it took four Hebrew letters to accurately portray this “Picture of God”? I mean after all, one of those three Hebrew letters was used two times.

י - ה - ו - ה

Yod - Hey - Waw - Hey

Father – Holy Spirit – Word/Son – Holy Spirit

Well it all goes back to the fact that somewhere around 3 BC the “Word” in Heaven” became the “Son” on Earth. However, in order for that to happen, God had to restructure His Triune Godhead.

You see when the Second Person of the Godhead – the “Word” – was in Heaven with the Father, the descending order of the Godhead was the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit.

י - ו - ה

Yod - Waw - Hey

Father – Word – Holy Spirit

However, when the Second Person of the Godhead – the “Word” – became a “Flesh and Blood” human being on earth – the “Son” – the descending order of the Godhead suddenly changed to the Father, the Holy Spirit, and then the Son.

י - ה - ו

Yod - Hey – Waw

Father – Holy Spirit – Son

But then came another change. Because it was after His “death, burial, and resurrection” that Jesus returned to Heaven, once again, to sit at the Right Hand of His Father. In other words God’s “Three In One” is now back to the original order: the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit.

So, you see it’s only because of the “sin of man” that these changes in the Triune Godhead were deemed necessary by the Almighty. In other words “God so loved the world” that He turned Heaven upside down in order to save it from the everlasting burning fires of Hell. And of course that’s the reason “God’s Name” uses four Hebrew letters instead of three to show us who He is.

י - ה - ו - ה

Yod - Hey - Waw - Hey

Father – Holy Spirit – Word/Son – Holy Spirit

However, even with this unmistakably clear picture of the “Three In One” Triune Godhead in the “Name of God”, there are many that persist in trying to deny God’s “Three In One” existence. Take for instance the following Scripture from the book of 1 John. You won’t find it in many of the “New Age” corrupted Bible versions. For some unknown reason, the Devil just can’t stand it:

“Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God? This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth. For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one. And there are three that bear witness in earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.” (1 John 5:5-8 KJV)

So regardless of what the Devil might say, the Scripture is clear on the fact that there are Three in Heaven – the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost – and these Three are One. That’s the way it was in the beginning, and that’s the way it is now. But what about when the Word became the Son?

“In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. In him was life; and the life was the light of men. And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not. . . But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.” (John 1:1-5, 12-14 KJV)

Well as the Scripture plainly tells us, when the “Word” became “Jesus the Son of God” and walked on this earth, the Father and the Holy Spirit were there too:

“Now when all the people were baptized, it came to pass, that Jesus also being baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened, And the Holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased.” (Luke 3:21-22 KJV)

“And it came to pass in those days, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John in Jordan. And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him: And there came a voice from heaven, saying, Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.” (Mark 1:9-11 KJV)

“Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him. But John forbad him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me? And Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffered him. And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him: And lo a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.” (Matthew 3:13-17 KJV)

So, you tell me! Should there really be any confusion? Should there really be any doubt?

Yahweh, God Almighty, is Three In One!!!
